Indian paintings can be broadly classified as murals and miniatures. Murals are large works executed on the walls of solid structures, as in the Ajanta Caves and the Kailashnath temple. Miniature paintings are executed on a very small scale for books or albums on perishable material such as paper and cloth. The Palas of Bengal were the pioneers of miniature painting in India.

Welcome to North Star Military Figure's online magazine Over the past decade, we have been very good at stocking and selling thousands of different figures, rule sets and other wargames 'stuff', but we haven't really given you much advice once you've bought something from us! The North Star Magazine we hope will redress that somewhat. With this online magazine, we'll be using its pages to ...
