Both in the king and the priest the chief thing is power, influence, blessing. In the king it is the power coming downward; in the priest, the power rising upward, prevailing with God. In our blessed Priest-King, Jesus Christ, the kingly power is founded on the priestly.

With Christ in the School of Prayer - Home of Christian

Summary. The power of intercessory prayer is a great gift from God. God listens to those he loves, and works all things for their good. Murray, in his classic work With Christ in the School of Prayer, calls the church to exercise that powerful gift. Murray skillfully describes the role of the Holy Spirit within the church...

With Christ in the School of Prayer - Christian Classics

Christ is our life: in heaven He ever lives to pray; His life in us is an ever-praying life, if we will but trust Him for it. Christ teaches us to pray not only by example, by instruction, by command, by promises, but by showing us HIMSELF, the ever-living Intercessor, as our Life.

do the will of God, or to seek union with Christ. In the practice of the Jesus Prayer with an attitude of repentance we seek an encounter with the living Christian God, Jesus.

JESUS PRAYER

COMMUNION WITH GOD. house is still fast asleep, in prayer, Bible reading, meditating on the life of Christ and listening to God's voice. This is the sweetest, the nicest, the very best thing that happens to me each day, and it prepares me for a Holy Spirit filled day of victory and joy.

A Devotional Guide for the School of Prayer, comprised of

We need to learn who we are in Christ and confess the same out loud. I am what God says I am regardless of how I feel about myself. My feelings cannot change the absolute truth of God's word. We need to see ourselves in the light of God's word. Once we have heard and seen God's truth we are to RECKON it to be so.
